SPRING 2013

Our Annual Makaronada

This year nearly 100 people joined us for spaghetti, salad, drinks and dessert on Meatfare Sunday at our annual Makaronada!

Sophie Roumpos and Sophia Drossos getting things ready.

And as always, all the proceeds raised go back into our community in the form of scholarships and charitable giving.

George Anastasopoulos, Ted Giannopoulos, Bill Drossos, Yanni Armou, & Paul Roumpos did a great job cooking! Thanks guys!

Rena Zoolakis and Rose Georgas

A big “thank you” to everyone who helped make this year’s Makaronada a huge success!

ευχαριστώ!

Καλή Σαρακοστή!

Did You Know???

Arcadia was home to some of ancient Greece's most interesting and unusual mythological characters.

The huntress, Atalanta, hailed from Arcadia. Along with consistently besting men in wrestling matches, she joined Jason aboard the Argonaut on the hunt for the Golden Fleece.

Maybe she's the reason Arcadian women are so strong!

And Arcadia's mountains were also the home to Pan, the god of the wild, shepherds and their flocks, and nature.

He's credited with helping the Athenians achieve victory at the Battle of Marathon by inspiring panic in the hearts of the Persians!

Congratulations!

Elections for club officers were held at our January meeting. Last year's officers were re-elected by acclamation. Congratulations to:

President Christopher Katis
Vice President Antoinette Sotiriou
Treasurer Irene Wallingford
Secretary Sandra Katis

George Anastasopoulos administers the oath to Rena Zoolakis (board), Yvonne Pauls (board), Christopher Katis, Antoinette Sotiriou, Sandra Katis and Irene Wallingford

NEXT MEETING!

*Our next meeting will be Tuesday, April 16, 2013 at 6:00 p.m. Please plan on joining us!
We'll be discussing our May event!*

Have an idea for our next issue? Know an Arcadian who's interested in joining? Want to pay your dues? Contact President Christopher Katis at chriskatis@comcast.net And be sure to follow us on Facebook!
